Dear Classmates,

Enclosed is an emblem we have had specially prepared for our Reunion. It is suitable for use on a blazer, male or female, and in other ways. If you come to the Reunion, you will get another emblem and a handsome hat to go with it (already sewn on - the Reunion Committee spares no expense where your money is concerned). The hat is white gaberdine with a spring front insert to retain shape. It is completely adjustable to all head sizes. It retails at a very high price, but with our huge volume we are able to get special discounts.

The Alumni Office will shortly be issuing to you a copy of the full program for the weekend. They will also give information on room reservations in College dorms. Our attendance list is growing with the following signed up since my last letter:

Jim Blair
Parker Butts
Bill McGinley
Al Haven
Bill Lyon
Dave Owens
Sid Pinney
John Stanford
Stan Turner

So, enjoy the emblem and follow it back to Amherst for the May 30 - June 1 Weekend.

It looks as if a charge of $75 for Class members, $25 for wives and $15 for each child will cover expenses. I'll have the exact details on this in my next and last letter. In the meantime, if you haven't let us know that you are coming and sent in a $25 deposit, please - we want to hear from you.

Cordially yours,

Charlie Gadsden

Our 35th Amherst Reunion is only three months away!

definitely or most probably be with us:

| Ed Babbott | Joe Gordon | Smiley Pierce |
| Carl Bischoff | Bill Graham | Gene Reilly |
| Dick Carrie | Tom Greenman | Al Schrashun |
| Bill Cecil | Chape Harris | George Shinn |
| Lloyd Conover | Lou Head | Starky Starkweather |

| Bob Finsthwait | Archie Messenger | Bill Webster |
| Bill Foster | Doug Milne | Lew Weintraub |
| Charlie Gadsden | Bill Murray | Gus Williams |

If your name is not on the list as yet, please check your calendar and mark down the May 30-June 1 weekend to be with your Class at Amherst. Then fill in the enclosed form and return it to me as soon as possible.

Headquarters will open for business on Friday, May 30, at noon. We will be at the Little Red Schoolhouse with refreshments available throughout the weekend. Friday evening will be quite informal so as to give everyone an opportunity to renew old acquaintances and catch up on recent news. On Saturday, we expect to have some special athletic activities under the direction of Archie Messenger. That evening, we'll have our Class Dinner and Meeting following which Jack Dobbin promises live music from the Big Band era. In addition, of course, there will be the regular College events such as the meeting of the Alumni Society, Alumni Lunch, Glee Club concert, etc.

The most important thing, however, is that as many of us
as possible be there to enjoy each other's company.

I hope we can count on you.

Dear Classmate,

It is time to get out your 1980 calendar and block out the weekend of May 30th to June 1st. These are the dates of the grand and glorious 35th Reunion of the distinguished Class of 1945!

A highly motivated Reunion Committee is hard at work laying out plans for the best ever get-together of our Class. Our Headquarters will again be at the Little Red Schoolhouse. Archie Messenger is developing a scheme to prod us into some special athletic activities but plans are also being made to assure plenty of time to renew old bonds and to have a joyful, springtime return to Amherst.

The most important thing now is that you commit to be there. If you have been an infrequent reuner in prior years, it is even more important that you commit to come back this time. The key to a successful Reunion is that we all be there together.

We're working to hold the costs of the Reunion to as low a level as possible and will have a firm figure on this shortly. In the meantime, we do need some working capital and would appreciate an advance registration fee of $25.00. The balance will be collected later.

Please fill out the enclosed reply form and return it in the enclosed envelope letting us know of your plans.

I look forward to hearing from you soon and to seeing you on May 30th.

Cordially yours,

Charlie Gadsden

|-----------------|------------------|---------------------|
| Bill Abbott | Joe Gordon | Dave Owens |
| Carl Bischoff | Pres Gould | John Patrick |
| Parker Butts | Bill Graham | George Pierce |
| Dick Carrie | Tom Greenman | Sid Pinney |

| Marty Fox | Archie Messenger | Bill Webster |
| Charlie Gadsden | Doug Milne | Lew Weintraub |

In most cases, wives will be there too as well as twenty-five or so children and grandchildren.

The cost of the weekend will be $75 per Class member, $110 for a couple and $25 for each child (if there are any very young children/grandchildren, we'll work out a special rate). These prices do not include rooms which must be reserved directly through the College using the form which was mailed out with the program by the Alumni Office.

It would be a great help to your Reunion Committee if as many as possible of those planning to attend would mail me a check for the appropriate amount per the above (less any deposit already sent) before May 30. We will have to pay in advance for such things as the tent, refreshments, etc. and will need cash on hand for this purpose.

As you know, our headquarters are at the Little Red Schoolhouse which will be ready to receive you starting at noon on Friday the 30th. In addition to all of the College events listed in the program mailed to you recently, our Class events include: informal get-together at headquarters on Friday; coffee and donuts at headquarters Saturday and Sunday mornings; golf, tennis and running events (full details attached); cocktails, dinner and Class meeting Saturday evening followed by musical entertainment.

See you on the 30th!

Cordially,

Dear George,

Thanks for your thoughtfulness in inviting Pat and me to join all of you in Vermont. We are planning on it.

As I mentioned on the phone, I have to go back down to Briarcliff College (now Pace University) to give the graduation speech on Sunday afternoon. I hope to be back at your place by 6:30 in the evening. Perhaps Pat will come up with Bill and Dru or with me; we will work that out at Amherst.

Looking forward very much to being with you all.

Dear Professor and Mrs. Sprague,

It has been far too long since I have responded to your note of last summer and Christmas. We are both indeed sorry that you found it necessary to leave your lovely home in Castine but know that you'll enjoy being in the vicinity.

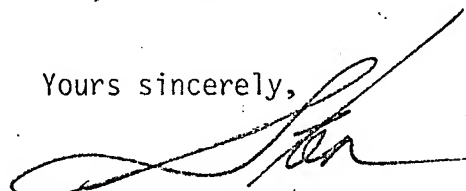

Our lives have been busy indeed these last months. Ever since the Iranians took our hostages in November, I've been about as busy as is possible. This has been as difficult a crisis as I have ever seen our Government confront. The failure of our rescue effort last month was a great disappointment to us all. We will keep on trying one way or another.

On top of that, in February my mother passed on peacefully and quietly. This meant a lot of work for Pat and me in closing out her and Father's house and selling it. That is behind us now, and we are in fact happily settled in a new home of our own. After I retired from the Navy a year and one-half ago, we had to give up living in Navy houses. We've bought a lovely townhouse on the bank overlooking the Potomac on the Virginia side of the river. Pat has had a wonderful time decorating it and getting settled in. The Navy treated us well with lovely homes for seven years, but Patricia is happier to have her own.

We're going back to Amherst in a few weeks for my 35th and from there for a day or two vacation with the Chairman of the Board, George Shinn, at his summer home in Vermont. In addition, Bill Webster and Bill Liedtke will be joining us. It is such a treat to have Bill Webster here in the FBI position. We work together a great deal. Our friendship, which goes back to 1941, has let us build a closer rapport between our two agencies than has ever existed before. Both of our staffs know that if they don't get along with each other they're going to be in trouble when the Directors are such good friends, see each other socially, and compete with each other regularly on the tennis court!

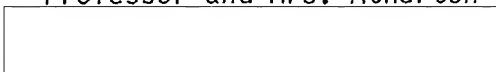

We'll hope to see Rosemary when we're at Amherst and to get an update on you. In the meantime, we both send our warmest love.

Yours sincerely,

STANSFIELD TURNER

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Lectures Delivered at Pace University

1. I traveled to Pace University in Pleasantville, NY on 7-8 April 1980 to deliver two lectures. The first was entitled "The Brezhnev Years: A Preliminary Appraisal," and was given to Pace's John H. Buchsbaum Historical Society. It was open to the general public, and approximately 90 people attended. The second was a talk about the CIA and the job of a political analyst delivered to a class of approximately 30 students, who are taking a course entitled "History of U.S. Intelligence."

2. This was the third time that I have been invited to lecture at Pace, where I did my undergraduate work. In 1977, after returning from a summer in the Soviet Union, I gave a talk on my experiences there. The following year I delivered a lecture on the Soviet and American reactions to the Hungarian Revolution and the Suez Crisis of 1956, which will be published in the Journal of Contemporary History next spring.

3. Prior publicity of my visit to Pace and the announcement that Admiral Turner will be the commencement speaker at Pace's graduation this June generated a protest letter from six faculty members that was published in the university newspaper the week before my visit. Despite this, and my public identification as a CIA employee, my reception was friendly--even enthusiastic. There was not the slightest hint of hostility from any of the questioners.

STAT

ADMINISTRATIVE - INTERNAL USE ONLY

5. The students in the class on "The History of U.S. Intelligence," displayed a keen understanding of the job we do at CIA and a sympathy for the difficulties we encounter. The course, which is one of the few of its kind in the country, is taught by Dr. John Norman, a former analyst with OSS and INR. Many of the questions concerned the procedures and pitfalls of intelligence analysis. One or two questioners, inevitably, asked me to explain alleged CIA intelligence "failures," specifically Iran and Afghanistan. I replied that on the former there was a failure to foresee the intensity of the Islamic revolution but that there are not many around, including the mullahs, who accurately predicted the course of events. On Afghanistan, I contended that we were right on top of the situation. And while not being able to predict the exact date of the Soviet invasion, we gave US policy-makers ample warning. To a question about which US intelligence agency produced the highest quality intelligence, I responded that, being a totally objective observer, I would have to say CIA. Doctor Norman, despite his loyalty to INR, concurred.

6. Doctor Norman also expressed an interest in bringing other CIA speakers to address his class in the future. I suggested that it may be possible to arrange a trip to the headquarters building for future classes.

letters to the editors

CIA protest

To the editors:

Several years ago, the American Association of University Professors passed at its national convention a resolution condemning covert intelligence activities on campuses by our government. Shortly after this, the Pace Pleasantville Faculty Council voted its endorsement of that resolution. These steps were taken in the wake of numerous disclosures of intrusion by the Central Intelligence Agency into university and scholarly life in the United States, including the presence of "operatives" at a sizeable number of colleges and universities. Presumably, these persons had the task of secretly recruiting those they deemed acceptable for intelligence jobs. But whether or not that was their only mission—and who could be sure in view of the long record of exposes of quasi-legal or illegal C.I.A. work—it was no less an institution than Harvard that passed strict guidelines designed to curb such operatives. They did so, it was explained, because they felt the whole clandestine nature of this network obviously tended to have a "chilling effect" on the free exchange of ideas so essential to the academic world.

Now, in the midst of the current pressure to "unleash" the Agency from congressional restrictions imposed after the scandals, we learn from the newspapers that they have already violated those controls! According to the N.Y. Times, (Sun., March 2), Admiral Stansfield Turner, C.I.A. Director, testified to a Senate committee that he had "in very limited occasions" waived restrictions and authorized the use of journalists, teachers, and clergymen for covert missions in recent years. (Later, his Deputy issued a "clarification" to the effect that although authorized, the operations were never carried out.)

—We the undersigned faculty can only view with dismay these clear threats to our basic liberty in the name of protecting liberty.

—Further, we agree with the efforts of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence to pass charter legislation that would, according to the Times, prohibit use of the three above-mentioned professions for "covers." Also, the charter would require some congressmen to be briefed in advance of significant secret operations. Unfortunately but not surprisingly, the C.I.A. has expressed its opposition to these and other regulative measures—measures which are designed, in the words of Senator Byrd of West Virginia, to make them legally and not just informally accountable.

—Thus, we must express our deep regret that Pace has at this time chosen to honor Admiral Turner as spring commencement speaker at Pleasantville. And we hope that the important issues we have raised will be debated by each member of the Pace community, so that we all consult and act according to our consciences as citizens of a democracy and as people involved in democratic education.

I am grateful to Admiral Turner and to you for your ready response to my letter confirming our hope that the Admiral may be able to be present for our commencement exercises at Pace University in Pleasantville on June 1. As you may well understand, we do hope that world events will permit Admiral Turner himself to be on hand, but we should certainly be greatly honored if Ambassador John Holdridge were required to substitute for him. Indeed, we have the best of all worlds in knowing that Admiral Turner's substitute would be a person of such genuine distinction.

Thank you so very much for writing. We will now proceed to provide you and Admiral Turner with specific details while understanding that we now can look forward to either his or Ambassador Holdridge's participation in the commencement.

Dear Admiral Turner:

We are looking forward to our Commencement weekend when you will deliver the commencement address and receive an honorary degree of the University on Sunday, June 1 at the Pace Pleasantville graduation ceremonies at the Dick Clark Westchester Theater.

As the date draws near, there are details that you should have regarding time and place. The ceremonies begin at 2:00 p.m. I would suggest that you arrive about 1:15 p.m. which will give you time to relax and meet the Trustees and officers of the University. We convene behind stage which is located in the rear of the theater with an entrance direct from the parking area.

I would also like to invite you most warmly to join us for a reception in New York City on the day preceding the Pleasantville exercises. The reception for honored guests, trustees, officers and faculty will be held in the Museum and Library of the Performing Arts at Lincoln Center just west of Avery Fisher Hall at 111 Amsterdam Avenue at 4:30 p.m. It will give you a chance to meet some of our trustees before your own appearance on Sunday. You will, of course, be welcome to attend the commencement exercises to be held on this day in Avery Fisher Hall at 2:00 p.m. Arthur Levitt, Jr. will deliver the address and Mr. Harry Helmsley of Helmsley Spear and Ms. Felice Schwartz, President of Catalyst, will receive honorary degrees on that occasion.

I hope you can be with us on May 31 and June 1. We look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,

Ed Mortola
